

Notice: Access to Digital Library Resources

The library is pleased to introduce access to a wide range of digital resources for all students and faculty members. Users can now explore e-books, journals, and academic materials online using their login credentials.

Features of the Digital Library:

- Access to e-books across multiple subjects
- Online academic journals and research papers
- 24/7 availability from any location

Steps to Access:

1. Visit the library portal
2. Login using your registered ID and password
3. Navigate to the Digital Resources section

Students are encouraged to make use of these resources to enhance learning and research activities.

For login issues or assistance, please contact the library help desk.
